

Swedish Minister for Enterprise and Energy – Maud Olofsson was informed of the BIOAGRO project.

One of the BIOAGRO project manager members was invited to Stockholm to attend a Climate Event held by the Swedish Postcode Lottery. The event, held the first of April 2009, included lectures by Tony Blair, Bill Clinton and nobel prize laureate Wangari Maathai. One thousand guests were invited and among them were the Swedish Minister for Enterprise and Energy – Maud Olofsson, who was informed of the BIOAGRO project and its potential for agriculture and carbon mitigation.

More about the Climate Event and the speeches can be found at:

<http://www.postkodlotteriet.se/Klimatevent.htm>

Swedish Minister for Enterprise and Energy , Maud Olofsson, and BIOAGRO representative David Andersson handing a BIOAGRO information brochure.